

ThePrint

9. Time Space and Speech by Dinar Sultana

Dinar Sultana's craft combines everyday materials with those associated with ritual and history. The piece, on display at Iram Art Gallery, reveals a play of absurdity. Sultana uses terracotta moulds, cotton pulp, human hair, snakeskin, and a slew of other discarded ephemerals to create a regenerative work of art.

'Time Space And Speech' by Dinar Sultana | Photo: Rohit Chawla